

Full Circle

Every so often the Lord gives us a glimpse into the impact of our ministry. Recently I had the privilege of going to one of our extension sites of the Bible school (SAST) to do some training and got to see one of our former students in action. Tshepiso, one of our graduates, returned to her home church and was part of the team that established and oversees this extension. What a joy to watch one that we have poured ourselves into now pouring herself into others. This extension has over 20 students and is multiplying the efforts of SAST to train leaders for the church across South Africa. We are truly grateful that the Lord allows us to continue to raise up leaders of leaders through the ministry of SAST. Thank you so much for partnering with us and allowing us to follow God's call to South Africa.

We also had the great privilege of ministering at the wedding of the daughter of a local pastor. What a privilege to share and celebrate with them!!
